Please start voting for Ipswich School on Monday!! Share and tell all of your friends! It would be so amazing if Ipswich Public School advanced! If you feel comfortable having your students vote if you have a few extra minutes in class, that would be wonderful. Public Voting Opens November 2–6 for National Crosley Custom Cruiser Contest. Students from Ipswich School have transformed the iconic Crosley Cruiser Record Player into a work of art; public invited to vote daily by region. Ipswich Public School is proud to participate in the nationwide Crosley Custom Cruiser Contest, where students from over 200 high schools across the U.S. have transformed the iconic Crosley Cruiser Record Player into original works of art. The Ipswich Area is invited to support our students by voting from November 2–6.
How to Vote
• Visit: crosleyradio.com/cruiser-contest
• Browse entries in five geographic regions
• Vote once per day in each region

• Share + encourage community support

Regional winners determined by public vote will move forward to the national judging round. Then, a panel from Crosley will evaluate creativity, craftsmanship, and thematic storytelling to select the Grand Prize Winner.

Prizes

• Grand Prize: $2,500 for the school's art program + up to 25 Cruiser Record Players for the participating students

• 2nd – 5th Place: $500 for the school's art program

• Social Standout Award: $500 for the school's art program + up to 25 Cruiser Record Players for the participating students for the school chosen by Crosley with the best social media campaign around the project. The contest promotes hands-on creativity and supports the arts at a time when many school programs face limited funding. It also encourages students to see music not just as entertainment, but as something that brings people together.
